Comparative statements of appropriations and expenditures, estimated and actual revenues for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1946, are presented in Exhibits III and IV. As indicated by the budget summary a net overdraft of appropriations of $1,506.01, less a net excess of actual over estimated revenues of $1,390.83, resulted in a net budget deficit of $ 115.18.

Summary of Special Poll Tax Account: (Exhibit V)

A summary statement of the Special Poll Tax account for the levies of 1944 and 1945, is included in Exhibit V. As indicated therein an excess remittance of $51.00 was made to the State Treasurer on account of the levy of 1945. This amount has been included as an asset in the balance sheet of December 31, 1946, under the heading of "Accounts due from State of New Hampshire" and titled "Excess Special Poll Tax Remittance."

Summary of Receipts and Expenditures: (Schedule A)

A summary of receipts and expenditures for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1946, made up in accordance with the uniform classification of accounts is included in Schedule A.

AUDIT PROCEDURE

The accounts and records of all town officials charged with the custody, receipt and disbursements of public funds were examined and audited. Vouchers and cancelled checks were compared with supporting invoices and payrolls as well as entries in the books of record. Receipts were checked by source insofar as possible and totals of receipts and expenditures verified. Proof of the Treasurer's balance as of December 31, 1946, is indicated in Schedule B.

TAX ACCOUNTS

The tax warrants for the levies of 1946 and 1945, and the tax sale account for the levy of 1945 were examined. Summaries indicating the activity in the tax warrant and tax sale accounts for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1946, are presented in Schedules C, D and E.

TOWN CLERK

The financial accounts and records of the Town Clerk were examined and audited. All funds received by the Town Clerk on account of the issuance of motor vehicle permits and dog licenses were properly accounted for through remittances to the Treasurer. (Schedule G.)

TRUSTEES OF TRUST FUNDS

Savings bank books representing the principal and unexpended income of the trust funds were examined. A summary statement of trust fund principal and income as of December 31, 1946, is included in Schedule I.

GENERAL COMMENTS

Tax Sale Accounts (Prior Years)

During the year 1945, remittances were made to the Treasurer by former Tax Collector Guy Davison on account of redemptions from tax sales for the levies of 1940, 1941 and 1942, which, including interest thereon, amounted to $196.25. In 1946, a similar remittance was made on account of a redemption from the tax sale for the levy of 1942, amounting to $107.59, as indicated by Schedule F of this report.

Owing to the lack of adequate tax sale records, it has not been possible to determine the amount of taxes which still remain unredeemed from the tax sales of prior years. Consequently such unredeemed taxes have been omitted from the statement of assets in the balance sheet at the close of the fiscal year.

It is very important, however, that a proper record be made as soon as possible on the prescribed form of all unredeemed taxes from the tax sales of prior years. These should be segregated by year of levy. When this has been done, warrants should be made out and all unredeemed taxes from prior year's sales committed to the present collector.

Tax Collector

The Tax Collector should adopt the use of the standard loose leaf form of columnar cash book for recording tax collections and redemptions from tax sales. Also the standard form of tax sale record book should be used in place of the present practice of simply keeping the original tax sale notice for this purpose.

Prompt posting of all accounts from the cash book to the tax warrant and tax sale record books is also essential.

Town Clerk

It is recommended that the Town Clerk use the regular Town Clerk's Cash Book for recording motor vehicle permits and dog licenses issued.

Road Agent

The payrolls submitted by the Road Agent were on file in the Selectmen's office. Vouchers and checks were issued to the Road Agent for the total amount of such payrolls. However, no evidence of the payments made by the Road Agent to individual highway employees, whose names appeared on the payrolls, was presented to the auditors. Either cancelled checks of the Road Agent to highway employees or payrolls bearing the recipients' signatures should be on file with the Selectmen's records.

Fire Department

The Treasurer of the Fire Department was absent from Town during the time of audit and the records were not available. Therefore, our audit reflects only the actual payments made by the Town to the Fire Department.

Surety Bonds

The surety bonds of the town officers were not accessible for examination. However, the Ayer Insurance Agency at Plymouth was contacted and we were informed by them that all the Town Officers required to be bonded were covered for their current terms.

CONCLUSION

The provisions of Section 31, Chapter 211, of the Laws of 1939, require that this report or a summary of its essential features shall be published in the next annual town report.

We extend our thanks to the officials of the Town of Holderness for their assistance during the course of the audit.

Yours very truly,

HAROLD G. FOWLER, Director,

Division of Municipal Accounting,
State Tax Commission.

Alan R. Matthews, Auditor

Norman P. Schauer, Accountant.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Teachers

For several years past, the schools of Holderness have been taught by well trained and experienced teachers. Because these teachers lived not far away, and were not interested in leaving their homes to secure more lucrative positions elsewhere, it has not been necessary recently to look for new teachers here. This year, at the Carr School, Mrs. Craig declined to accept the school again, and this school has felt the effect of change of teachers in earnest. For the first half of the present school year there have been (including substitutes) no less than five different teachers there. It is hoped that Mrs. Thelma Hawkins, who has agreed to finish the year, will be able to do so and that the pupils will not be subjected to further changes.

Our music supervisor, Donald Musgrove, was unable to return to school in September, but has recovered sufficiently from his accident to resume his duties beginning December first.

The problem of securing new teachers everywhere is due to become increasingly difficult for several years to come. Less than fifty new teachers, trained for elementary school work, will graduate from Plymouth and Keene in 1947, and several hundred vacancies in the state are to be filled. The salary of such beginning teachers—with four years of training—is expected to be at least $1,800.00 per year. This increase in salaries is reflected in school budgets throughout the state, and Holderness is no exception.

Enrollment

On another page of this report appears the usual statement of the number of pupils enrolled in each school this present year. It will be noted that the West Center Harbor school now enrolls only seven pupils. Such small schools are not only expensive to maintain, but are also apt to be handicapped because of lack of competition and interest among pupils. The school board, realizing this fact, voted last spring to close the school and transport the pupils from that section of the town of Ashland. However, since no suitable means of transportation could be found—but a teacher could—the original vote was rescinded, and it was decided to keep the school open for the present year. This decision seemed to meet with the approval of parents in that section.

As three of the seven pupils there are in the eighth grade and are expected to graduate in June, it is very unlikely that the school will be opened next September unless more families with children move into that neighborhood.

Budget Increases

Due primarily to the need of increasing teachers' salaries, but partly also because of higher costs of school supplies and equipment, all towns are facing the prospect of increased cost of schools this coming year. Holderness' high cost per pupil for education is due largely to the fact that our pupils are scattered over a large area, which makes it necessary to maintain five one-room schools, with transportation routes leading to three of them. Thus we are subject to much of the inconvenience and expense of transportation that be required if we had a centralized school—but with none of the advantages that a centralized school might offer.

In December the school board voted an increase of $200.00 in the present year's salary of each teacher, as many other towns have found it necessary to do because of the increased cost of living. As suggested in a previous paragraph, the trend of salaries seems to be still further upward and in all probability will be higher for several years to come.

Changes in State Administration

The new commissioner of education, Edgar Fuller, is making changes in the organization and policy of the State Department which are of significance to all. Of these changes, two are briefly mentioned here.

In his policy of expanding the services offered by State Department personnel, Mr. Fuller has brought to us Gertrude Lewis, who is an expert in methods of teaching reading and other elementary subjects. Miss Lewis conducted in October an institute for rural teachers at Meredith Center. Then while working in this area in December, she visited the Elm School, and also conducted a meeting of teachers in this union to help with their difficulties and to offer suggestions for improving their work.

The policy of the State Department also proposes that a greater share of school costs be borne by the State; and in order to put this into effect, a law is under consideration (House Bill No. 12) which should help to prevent excessive increases of local tax rates in future years. If this bill becomes a law, funds from the State treasury will be available to all districts, the amount varying with the size of schools and with local needs.

School Marks and Promotions

Report cards are looked upon by most parents as a true indication of the success or failure of their children in school; but this is not always the case. When John or Mary got A and B on their cards last year, and the new teacher this year marks them C and D, the parents naturally suppose the children are not learning as well and often blame the teacher. The difference may be that the new teacher demands more, setting higher standards for her class, and really teaching just as thoroughly as any former teacher has done. Teachers are not encouraged to give high marks except for really superior work.

Promotion to the next grade should depend upon various factors; not only marks in class, but mental maturity, ability to understand the next year's work, reading skill, etc. In deciding what grade a pupil should enter next September, the question we try to answer is, "Where will this child learn most, and progress best, next year?" If the work of the next grade will seem each day like a mountain to him, so that he will give up trying, perhaps he needs review.

Each case has to be decided on the basis of the best good of the pupil concerned. We hope for understanding and cooperation between parents and teachers in helping to do at all times what is best for the children in our schools.

Acknowledgment

There is not room here to mention all who have generously helped with various school activities during the year, but one organization deserves special recognition—the Red Cross. In the school nurses's report some mention is made of their support of the health program, and I wish to add my personal appreciation of their generous assistance in providing first aid equipment, paying part of the cost of our milk for school lunches, as well as sponsoring the cod liver oil and influenza immunization programs.

Respectfully submitted,

ALMON W. BUSHNELL,

Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

To the Citizens of Holderness:

Your nurse has made 101 school visits during the past year, and inspected 80 pupils. The pupils have been weighed and measured twice. Vision tests have been administered with the telebinocular, and hearing tests with the audiometer.

Dr. Feiner did the physical examinations, with the following results:

Defective teeth	25
Defective tonsils	25
Defective vision	3
Defective hearing	3
Enlarged glands	27
Cardiac condition	2
Malnutrition	6
Skin condition	1

One dental clinic was held, and eight children taken to Dr. Pottle at Meredith.

One tonsillectomy was done.

A toxoid clinic was held in May, for pupils in the first five grades and for pre-chool children. This clinic was sponsored by the State Board of Health. Dr Feiner was the physician in attendance, assisted by Mrs. Joanne Carter of the State Board and by your school nurse.

The Red Cross furnished cod liver oil tablets and assisted financially, in cooperation with the Federal Government, in procuring milk for the children, who pay one cent a day for one-half pint of milk.

Recently 55 pupils were inoculated with influenza preventive serum, which will immunize about 80% of those taking it, for five months. This was administered by Dr. Feiner and sponsored by the Red Cross.

I wish to express my appreciation to all who assisted in carrying out the health program.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA A. HENEY, R. N.
